

HEINZE ORGANIZES
A PARTY OF HIS OWN

Butte, Mont., Sept. 28.—F. Augustus Heinze last night organized his new political party, to be known as the anti-trust democracy. At least Heinze made the announcement that an organization had been effected. The primaries are called for Monday, Sept. 29, and the convention for the following day. Ex-Governor Robert B. Smith, who recently deserted the Populists, acted as the spokesman of the meeting. F. Augustus Heinze made an address to the meeting, in which he attacked the regular democracy, declaring that an alliance existed with the Amalgamated Copper company. The Standard Oil company, and Senator Clark of the regular democracy. Heinze's organization of an independent party follows his turn-down at the state election, where the whole of the state delegations overwhelmingly voted against allowing the Heinze party seats in the convention. The claim is made that Heinze is going to control the judiciary in order that such legislation may be had as will conserve the interests of Mr. Heinze in his mining litigation against the Amalgamated Copper company.

Jack Root Now in Condition to Meet All Comers.

John Root, Chicago light heavyweight, has signed articles of agreement for another contest under the auspices of the American Athletic Club to keep him busy and the better part of the coming winter. He is ready to meet any man in the world who is willing to agree to do 150 rounds at the ring.

Marvin Hart of Louisville will get the best of the match. He is a practically-dressed-for Oct. 8—Jack O'Brien can have the next chance, and George O'Brien will have the next. The articles for all three of these battles, and the manager of the South Side club in Chicago, will be signed by the other boxer. He is almost sure of succeeding, as he has heard from the other boxer, who says that he may be a bit, as the Philadelphia seldom weighs over 150 pounds, and he may be a bit to the contrary.

Sharkey Worth $70,000.

Tom Sharkey says he thinks he has outlived his usefulness as a prize fighter and now he is willing to settle down and devote his time to his wife and children. The world's weight is estimated to be $70,000, which he has accumulated the last few years at fighting.

"I have been fighting for a long time," said Sharkey, "and now I want to get out of the ring. I have a wife and children, and I want to be a man of business. I have discovered that a man cannot stick to his business and fight at the same time. Then my parents have urged me to give up fighting, and I will do so. That's the end of it."

PETE IN TROUBLE.

The Mexican Goes Up Against a Gun and Loses Out.

Mexican Pete has broken loose again. This time Pete turned himself upon the inoffensive citizens of Caldwell, Ida., and as a result is now lying in the town's strong box awaiting a sentence from the police judge. The inside of a jail is by no means a strange place to the Mexican, but in breaking into the Caldwell calaboose Pete came very near getting a free transportation to the next world.

Pete and a friend who goes by the name of Fred arrived in Caldwell one day last week and at once tried to drink up all the liquor in the place. In a short time they had one of Pete's well-known glorious jags on and began looking for trouble. A night watchman spotted the pair and, grabbing the Mexican, started him off for jail. When near that place Pete broke into the custody of the law and a scuffle ensued. Pete tried one of his famous swings and missed, while the constable tried a Colt's persuader. When Pete saw the gun he took to the woods. Those who know the Mexican's ability in footstepping said he overdid himself that night and managed to get out of the way of five bullets as they sped by in an effort to reach his solitary plexus. The crack of the pistol had the necessary effect on the Mexican, however, and he trotted off to jail as meekly as a lamb and will probably spend the next few days endeavoring to improve the roads in the vicinity of Caldwell.

BILLY MADDEN HOME.

Wants to Again Match Rublin Against Champion Jeffries.

Billy Madden and his big scrapers, Gus Rublin and Denver Ed Martin, have returned to the United States from their European trip and are now in New York. Madden's men have had a successful trip. Under Madden's watchful eye Rublin defeated Tom Sharkey before the National Sporting Club in June, while Martin defeated Jim Jeffries, Frank Craig, the "Hartem Coffee Cooler," twice, and Bob Armstrong. That Madden does not intend to let the grass grow under his feet while he is in New York, he will look up matches for his respective men.

Of course the first thing we intend to do is to match Madden with Jim Jeffries. He is the man we want, because he is champion. Admitting that he has already defeated Rublin, I will offer him a date and place suitable to him. I will direct my attention toward Bob Armstrong. CHEMICAL ANALYSIS
WILL BE NECESSARY

New York, Sept. 28.—An autopsy was performed today on the body of James Craft, who was murdered early Saturday night in the Empire city. In twenty-first street, but the surgeon, it was announced, had not been able to determine whether or not there were traces of chloral or other poison in the stomach. A chemical analysis of the contents will be made to determine the point. The point of interest is whether or not knockout drops had been given Mr. Craft before he was attacked with the cleaver. If traces of chloral were found in his stomach the police suspect this would show a plot to rob the victim.

Mrs. Craft, wife of the murdered man, said today that Mr. Craft carried a sum of money when he left his home. Other witnesses reported that he was carrying a large sum of money.

Maggie Moore, alias Mary Truner, and Ida Craver, the head waiter at the Empire, who were arrested as witnesses, were arraigned today and remanded to the custody of the coroner.

THE DEEP TRUST.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—The Tribune says: What was to have been an important move in the formation of the alleged trust between the Kansas City and Chicago companies that it would assume control of the Kansas City and Chicago companies. The assumption of control—now of little moment—was to be a practical announcement of the consummation of the trust.

WOMEN CANDIDATES

Prospect That Republican Convention Will Name One For the Legislature.

Tonight throughout the county occur the Republican primaries, and all day yesterday the various candidates and their aides were busy arranging for the contests tonight, which promise to be more sharp than have ever heretofore.

There will be no cessation of work today, as the great number of close contests spurs the workers to their utmost. There will be two tickets in each ward and in most of the larger county districts. Probably the result can be forecasted, as to some of the candidates, when the results of tonight's primaries are known, though it is hardly probable that any of the leading candidates will withdraw. It is probable that the Republican ticket one woman will be nominated.

The candidates put forward for this honor are Mrs. Jennie E. Nelson and Mrs. Chester E. Conner. Some active workers at first looked with disfavor on this plan and hoped that this county would follow the lead of other counties and nominate only men. In the last few days, however, both these ladies have been urged to make the race for legislative positions, and the prospects are that one of them will win a nomination.

Mrs. Craft, wife of the murdered man, said today that Mr. Craft carried a sum of money when he left his home. Other witnesses reported that he was carrying a large sum of money.
